4648. DR. T. SUBBARAMI REDDY:
PROF. ALKA BALRAM KSHATRIYA:

Will the Minister of CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION be pleased to state:

(a) whether Centre for Environment and Food Security (CEFS) has launched a nationwide freedom from hungar campaign to mitigate suffering of 340 million people in the country, if so, whether it has been decided to observe year 2005 as a year of complete freedom from Hunger;

(b) whether outlining reasons for launching campaign, it has been pointed out that more than 24,000 people die of hunger every day and nearly 78 per cent of them are women and children;

(c) whether it is also a fact that every third hungry person in the world is an Indian; and

(d) the details of schemes that have been prepared?

THE MINISTER OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI SHARAD PAWAR): (a) The CEFS or the Centre for Environment and Food Security is a Delhi based NGO founded in April 2001 by some eminent scholars, writers, environmentalists, scientists and activists.

As per information supplied by the CEFS, they have launched a Freedom from Hunger campaign to banish the scourge of hunger from India by bringing this issue in mainstream intellectual discourse and at the Centre of Public Policy. CEFS is not observing the year 2005 as a year of complete freedom from hunger.

(b) and (c) Yes, CEFS has pointed out that more than 24,000 people die of hunger every day in the world and nearly 78% of them are women and children. They have furthermore stated that since almost one third of the hungry people of the world are living in India, it would be logical to assume that every third hungry person in the world is an Indian. Government does not share these perceptions on the basis of official records.

(d) As regards the details of the schemes, they have stated that they are a very small NGO with meager resources and, therefore, are not up to the task of preparing schemes and plans for the eradication of hunger from the country. Their basic methodology consists in holding of lecture, workshops, seminars and conferences on the issue of food security all over India.
